

MUTUAL PICTURES

SPRING 2018

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS
11 FEBRUARY

Mutual Pictures is a free film screening and dinner series sharing moving image work by graduate students and faculty across the School of Architecture + Planning and beyond. Mutual Pictures invites artists and filmmakers at MIT, along with their peers and collaborators in the wider community, for a monthly celebration of one other's work with friends and food. Each event will centre on an individual filmmaker or selection of short films, based on submissions received.

The first event will take place on the 28th February at the Wiesner Gallery (W20) as part of The February School. To submit a film, or to sign up to the mailing list, just email mutual@mit.edu.
